Excellent AI for copywriting

The longform copywriting mode is excellent. Easier to use than Jarvis Ai. And it is far more affordable. Easy commands, you just right click and go write section or continue.

Incredible number of tools in one place! One platform for all your needs.

Really powerful and intuitive. We were amazed at how many tools this packs under the hood. More intuitive to use than many similar products such as Spark and Canva.

available for ready to use
*Brilliantly simplified
